

Careers
 Clinical Psychologist
 Forensic
 Educational Health
 Sport & Exercise
 Neuro
 Counselling Occupational
 Academia, Research & Teaching

AO1 – Discussion

- Discussion skills
- Describing studies/theories
- Numerical skills
- Designing experiments

AO2 – Application

- Real world application
- Identifying key points from case studies/stem

AO3 – Evaluation

- Discuss
- Analyse
- Linking topics
- Using relevant terminology

LORIC Lessons

- Leadership
- Organisation
- Resilience
- Initiative
- Communication

ORACY

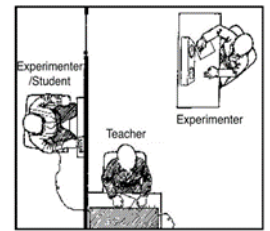

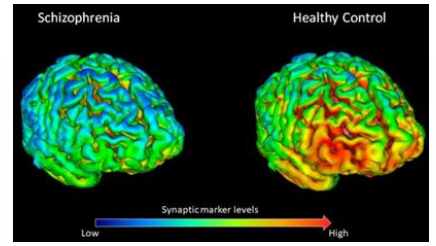

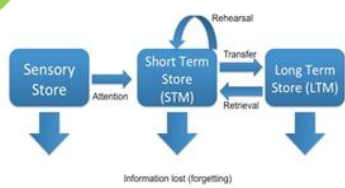

British Values

Wellbeing

- Thrive
- H2L
- LGBTQ

The multi-store model of memory (Atkinson & Shiffrin, 1968)

Exam skills & Revision

Exam skills & Revision

Links to subjects in KS3

Life skills – Health & wellbeing – addiction, drugs and alcohol, mental health. Relationship – Prejudice, respect and tolerance, identity & discrimination, group and peer pressure, role models.

Maths – Descriptive statistics, graphs & charts, fractions, ratio and percentages.

IT – learning how to use word processing and presentation software

AQA

Foldr

AQA PSYCHOLOGY FOR GCSE, A LEVEL & AS

OUR LEARNING JOURNEY PSYCHOLOGY

- Planning
- Research skills
- Evaluate/Analyse
- Work independently
- Apply knowledge to real world context/case studies
- Presentation skills
- Organised
- Carryout investigations
- Make reasoned judgements
- Use relevant terminology
- Create solutions
- Demonstrate practical skills

Links to subjects in KS3

Life Skills – Health and wellbeing - understanding mental health and healthy lifestyle. Relationships – identity and diversity, sexual health and good communication. Careers and the skills and qualities required. Human Rights and Laws. Discrimination and equality.

Science – Reproduction, Body systems including cardiovascular, respiratory and digestive systems.

Drama – Role play, vocal skills – tone, pace, volume. Body language

IT – learning how to use word processing and presentation software

OUR LEARNING JOURNEY

HSC & CHILD DEVELOPMENT